

George McElwee and Katie Hazlett Named to The Hill's Top Lobbyists of 2025

Washington, D.C. — December 15, 2025 — The Reserve Component’s (TRC) President and Founder, George McElwee, and Senior Vice President Katie Hazlett were recognized as 2025 Top Lobbyists by The Hill. This is the fifth time McElwee has received this recognition, and the second for Hazlett.

Each year, The Hill recognizes government affairs professionals who are highly influential, deeply connected, and consistently deliver meaningful results for their clients. This year, McElwee and Hazlett were selected from more than 1,800 nominations. They were named alongside many industry leaders, including Aaron Grau, Executive Director of Invest in the USA (IIUSA), a TRC client.

“Being recognized by The Hill for the fifth straight year is an honor,” said McElwee. “I’m incredibly proud of the work our team keeps doing on Capitol Hill, and we’re especially thankful to our clients whose trust and partnership make that work possible. I look forward to continuing our work together next year.”

“It’s an honor to be included on The Hill’s top lobbyist list for the second time,” said Hazlett. “This recognition is made possible by the trust our clients place in us; their collaboration and partnership guide our advocacy and help drive meaningful policy results.”

You can view The Hill’s annual list of Top Lobbyists here.

About The Reserve Component

The Reserve Component (TRC) is a bipartisan government relations firm focused on providing strategic, results-oriented federal lobbying services for companies, trade associations, nonprofits, and local governments. The Reserve Component's mission and approach are inspired by how the military's reserve forces support active-duty operations.

Contact:

George McElwee

Founder & President

The Reserve Component (TRC)

50 F Street, NW, Suite 1240

Washington, DC 20001

gmcelwee@trc-dc.com

(202) 390-1278